PREFACE

The "Book of Worship of the Church School" represents the product of some ten or fifteen years of study and experiment by many individuals and many schools. It is hoped that there will be found here the things that children need for the expression of their religious experience. It is not a large book, but every item is freighted with a fulness of meaning that years of use cannot exhaust.

In order that the materials of worship may be used to the best advantage, a leaders' "Manual for Training in Worship" has been provided, giving orders of service, stories, prayers, bibliographies, and explanations. Full directions for the use of "The Book of Worship" will be found there.

The last three prayers, on pages 13, 14, and 15, were prepared wholly or in part by pupils in the Union School of Religion for their own use. The prayers on pages 10 and 11 are from The Book of Common Prayer. 'A Petition,' page 12, is by Dean Charles R. Brown.

The writer wishes to express his deep sense of obligation to all who have permitted the use of their tunes and words; to Mr. Louis Lambert for the harmonizing of an air; to Dean Charles R. Brown for a prayer; to the teachers of the Union School of Religion who have assisted in the selection of hymns; to Mr. Clarence Dickinson and Mr. Melville Charlton, who most generously offered their services in the reading of music proof; to Professor Julius A. Bewer, who went over the manuscript of the Scripture selections; to Miss Eleanor Wright, who has assisted in the selection and preparation of hymns; to Professor George A. Coe, who has read the whole manuscript and made many valuable suggestions; to the many editors and publishers who have generously assisted in locating owners of hymns; and to all others who have contributed advice and criticism and encouragement.

Sincere effort has been made to communicate with all owners and holders of copyrights. If any rights have been unwittingly infringed or any courtesy neglected, we trust that it will be forgiven.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory, for ever. Amen.

A Prayer of Gratitude

O God, our Heavenly Father, Thou hast freely given us all things. Thou hast made the world beautiful. Thou dost send the sunshine and the rain, that the earth may yield us food and flowers. Thou hast given us the homes we love, and hast set us among many friends. All day long we are safe in Thy keeping; and at night we sleep in peace because of Thy gracious care.

We thank Thee, our Father, for all these gifts of Thy bounty. As Thou dost love us, so may we, by loving and helping others, show ourselves Thy grateful children. Amen.

A Prayer of Goodwill

Our Father in heaven, we thank Thee that in work and in play, in joy and in sorrow, Thou art the Friend and Companion of us all. When we do wrong and grieve Thee, Thou art ready to forgive. When we do right, Thou art glad.

May no hatred nor envy dwell in our hearts. Keep our hands from selfish deeds and our lips from unkind words. Teach us to bring cheer to any who suffer, and to share freely with those who are in need. So may we help Thee, our Father, to bring peace, goodwill and joy to all Thy children. Amen.

A Prayer of Reverence

O Thou who art the God of power and of love, we come to Thee with thankful praise and adoration. Without Thee there is no life, nor any joy. Thou hast made the world in all its beauty. Thou dost cause the sun to give us warmth and light. The shining stars obey Thy will; the flowers also are Thy ministers.

Teach us, O Father, true obedience to Thy perfect law. From all proud thoughts defend us. In our ignorance, Thy wisdom give us. Make us strong in Thine eternal strength. And thus, enfolded by Thy love, may we live in fellowship with Thee, O God, for ever. Amen.

A Prayer of Faith

In Thee, O Father, do we trust. As Thou hast been the Great Shepherd of men through all the ages, and hast led them in the way of life, so wilt Thou lead us also.

Give patience and strength to all Thy children. May they bravely work with Thee to spread Thy Kingdom of righteousness through all the earth. Give them unconquerable hope, that the light that lighteth every man may shine more and more unto the perfect Dawn.

And so with eagerness and joy shall we go forward day by day, to welcome all that time may bring of pleasures and of trials; never doubting, never halting, for underneath are the everlasting arms. Amen.

A Prayer of Loyalty

O Thou mighty Friend of man, Thou art the Giver of all Good. As the father cares for his child, so dost Thou keep eternal vigil over all Thy children.

Yet are we often unworthy of Thy kindness. We have often failed to do our best. We have thoughtlessly given pain to others. For the wrongs that we have done, forgive us, O our Father.

Help us to be more faithful to Thy trust in us. Make us steadfast in every task Thou givest us to do. May we help others to be happy. And thus, as Thy loyal sons and daughters, we will work with Thee for ever, in Thy Kingdom. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving

Almighty God, Father of all Mercies, we, Thine unworthy servants, do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and lovingkindness to us, and to all men. We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A prayer used by the church since 1661.

For All Conditions of Men

O God, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech Thee for all sorts and conditions of men; that Thou wouldest be pleased to make Thy ways known unto them, Thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for Thy holy church universal; that it may be so guided and governed by Thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life.

Finally, we commend to Thy fatherly goodness all those who are any ways afflicted, or distressed, in mind, body, or estate; that it may please Thee to comfort and relieve them, according to their several necessities; giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions.

And this we ask for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

A Petition

Our Heavenly Father, give us power to overcome all our faults. Give us the spirit of goodwill toward all our fellow beings. Give us firmer faith in Thee and all Thy promises. Help us to see and to follow those lines of action that shall bring lasting peace and happiness and prosperity; and guide us always in the way of eternal life, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

For Forgiveness and Strength

Our Heavenly Father, we make many mistakes. We have left undone the things we ought to have done, and we have done the things we ought not to have done. Sometimes we are angry; sometimes selfish. Sometimes we know we are doing wrong; other times we forget. Forgive us, our Father, all our sins, for we are sorry for all the wrong we do.

Help us to be better and more willing every day. Help us to control our tempers. Help us to do the thing we know to be right. May we cherish no selfish or unworthy desire, nor think any unkind thought. We know that we shall need to keep on trying, and we will keep on trying, for Thou art in us, helping us all the time.

In our failures and disappointments, in our trials and temptations, wherever we are, whatever we may have to do or to endure, be Thou, O God, our strength and our defence. In Jesus' name. Amen.

A Class Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for Thy watchful care over Thy children. Thou hast given us our homes and our parents, our schools and our teachers, our friends and our plays, and all the wonderful world in which we live. Help us to use all Thy gifts in the right way.

Forgive us that we so often forget Thee. We are sorry for our thoughtlessness and our unkindness.

Give us strong minds that we may think good thoughts; strong wills that we may resist temptation, and hearts ready to help others. May our class ever do its best, and may every member of our school live to please Thee. In Jesus' name, Amen.

A Class Prayer

O God, our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the homes we love, for the friends Thou hast sent us, and for all Thy gifts to us. May we carry Thy blessings to others, as Thou hast freely given them to us.

Keep in safety those who are not with us to-day and all those whom we love; and grant us and all Thy children the will and strength to follow Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Amen.

Unison Benedictions

The Lord bless us and keep us;
The Lord make His face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us;
The Lord lift up His countenance upon us, and give us peace. Amen.

Now unto Him that is able to keep us from falling, and to present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

The Beatitudes

Matthew 5 : 3-12

Blessed are the poor in spirit,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn,
For they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
For they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness,
For they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful,
For they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart,
For they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
For they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they that are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake;
Rejoice and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven;
For so persecuted they the prophets who were before you.

The Lord Reigneth

PART I

The Ninety-fifth and Ninety-sixth Psalms

O come, let us sing unto the Lord:
Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving,
And make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God,
And a great King above all gods.
In His hand are the deep places of the earth:
The strength of the hills is His also.
The sea is His and He made it;
And His hands formed the dry land.

O come, let us worship and bow down:
Let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

For He is our God,
And we are the people of His pasture,
And the sheep of His hand.

O sing unto the Lord a new song;
Show forth His salvation from day to day.
Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonders among all people.

For the Lord is great and greatly to be praised;
Honor and majesty are before Him:
Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

Give unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people,
Give unto the Lord glory and strength.
Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name.

Say among the nations, The Lord reigneth:
The world also shall be established that it shall not be moved:
He shall judge the people righteously.

Let the heavens rejoice and let the earth be glad;
Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein:
Then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice—

Before the Lord: for He cometh,
For He cometh to judge the earth:
He shall judge the world with righteousness,
And the people with His truth.

PART II

The Ninety-eighth Psalm

O sing unto the Lord a new song,
For He hath done marvellous things:
His right hand, and His holy arm, hath gotten Him the victory.

The Lord hath made known His salvation:
His righteousness hath He openly showed in the sight of the nations;
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth;
Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.

Make a joyful noise before the Lord.
Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
The world, and they that dwell therein.
Let the floods clap their hands;
Let the hills be joyful together—

Before the Lord,
For He cometh to judge the earth:
With righteousness shall He judge the world,
And the people with equity.

PART III

The One Hundredth Psalm

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands;

Serve the Lord with gladness;
Come before His presence with singing.

Know ye that the Lord He is God;
It is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,
And into His courts with praise;
Be thankful unto Him, and bless His name.

For the Lord is good;
His mercy is everlasting;
And His truth endureth to all generations.

The Lord Will Provide

The Sixty-fifth Psalm

O Thou that hearest prayer,
Unto Thee shall all men come.
In righteousness wilt Thou answer us, O God of our salvation;
Who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
And of them that are afar off upon the seas.

Who by His strength setteth fast the mountains,
Being girded with power;
Who stilleth the noise of the seas,
And the tumult of the people.

Thou visitest the earth and waterest it,
Thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water;
Thou preparest them corn, when Thou hast so provided for it.

Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly,
Thou settlest the furrows thereof;
Thou makest it soft with showers,
Thou blessest the springing thereof.

Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness,
And the little hills rejoice on every side.

The pastures are clothed with flocks;
The valleys also are covered over with corn;
They shout for joy, they also sing.

The One Hundred and Forty-sixth Psalm

Praise ye the Lord.

Praise the Lord, O my soul.

While I live will I praise the Lord;

I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

Happy is he whose hope is in the Lord;

Who made heaven and earth,

The sea, and all that therein is;

Who keepeth truth for ever;

Who executeth judgment for the oppressed;

Who giveth food to the hungry.

The Lord looseth the prisoners;

The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind;

The Lord raiseth them that are bowed down;

The Lord loveth the righteous;

The Lord preserveth the strangers.

He relieveth the fatherless and the widow;

But the way of the wicked He turneth upside down.

The Lord shall reign for ever;

Even thy God unto all generations.

Praise ye the Lord.

PART II

The One Hundred and Forty-eighth and the One Hundred and Fiftieth Psalms

Praise ye the Lord.

Praise ye the Lord from the heavens;
 Praise Him in the heights.
 Praise ye Him, all His angels;
 Praise Him, all His hosts.
 Praise ye Him, sun and moon,
 Praise Him, all ye stars of light.
 Praise Him, ye heavens of heavens,
 And ye waters that be above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord;
 For He commanded, and they were created.
 He also hath established them for ever and ever;
 He hath made a decree that shall not pass away.

Praise the Lord from the earth,
 Ye dragons, and all deeps;
 Fire and hail, snow and vapor,
 Stormy wind, fulfilling His word.
 Mountains and all hills;
 Fruitful trees and all cedars;
 Beasts, and all cattle;
 Creeping things, and flying fowl;
 Kings of the earth, and all peoples;
 Princes, and all judges of the earth;
 Both young men, and maidens,
 Old men, and children:

Let them praise the name of the Lord;
 For His name alone is exalted;
 His glory is above the earth and the heaven.

Praise ye the Lord.

Praise God in His sanctuary;

Praise Him in the firmament of His power.

Praise Him for His mighty acts;

Praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.

The One Hundred and Forty-fifth Psalm

I will extol Thee, my God, O King;
 And I will bless Thy name for ever and ever.
 Every day will I bless Thee,
 And I will praise Thy name for ever and ever.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised,
 And His greatness is unsearchable.

One generation shall praise Thy works to another,
 And shall declare Thy mighty acts.
 I will speak of the glorious honor of Thy majesty,
 And of Thy wondrous works.
 And men shall speak of the might of Thy terrible acts;
 And I will declare Thy greatness.
 They shall utter the memory of Thy great goodness,
 And shall sing of Thy righteousness.

The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion;
 Slow to anger, and of great mercy.
 The Lord is good to all;
 And His tender mercies are over all His works.

All Thy works shall praise Thee, O Lord,
 And Thy saints shall bless Thee;
 They shall speak of the glory of Thy kingdom,
 And talk of Thy power:

To make known to the sons of men His mighty acts,
 And the glorious majesty of His kingdom.

Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
 And Thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
 And raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

The eyes of all wait upon Thee,
 And Thou givest them their meat in due season.
 Thou openest Thine hand,
 And satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

The Lord is righteous in all His ways,
 And gracious in all His works.
 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him,
 To all that call upon Him in truth.
 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear Him;
 He also will hear their cry, and will save them.
 My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord;
 And let all men bless His holy name for ever and ever.

His Mercy Endureth For Ever

The One Hundred and Third Psalm

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
And all that is within me, bless His holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
And forget not all His benefits.

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;
Who healeth all thy diseases;
Who redeemeth thy life from destruction;
Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;
Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things,
So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The Lord is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.
He will not always chide,
Neither will He keep His anger for ever.
He hath not dealt with us after our sins;
Nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

For as the heaven is high above the earth,
So great is His mercy toward them that fear Him.
As far as the east is from the west,
So far hath He removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children,
So the Lord pitieth them that fear Him.
For He knoweth our frame;
He remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass:
As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
For the wind passeth over it and it is gone;
And the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear Him,
And His righteousness unto children's children;
To such as keep His covenant,
And to those that remember His commandments to do them.

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

A Psalm of Trust

The Twenty-third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
For Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Lord Is Thy Keeper

The One Hundred and Twenty-first Psalm

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills:
From whence cometh my help?

My help cometh from the Lord,
Who made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved,
He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold He that keepeth Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper;
The Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day,
Nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil,
He shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in,
From this time forth and even for evermore.

The Great Companion

The One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Psalm

O Lord, Thou hast searched me and known me.
 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising;
 Thou understandest my thought afar off.
 Thou compassest my path and my lying down,
 And art acquainted with all my ways.
 For there is not a word in my tongue,
 But lo, O Lord, Thou knowest it altogether.
 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
 It is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from Thy spirit?
 Or whither shall I flee from Thy presence?
 If I ascend up into heaven, Thou art there;
 If I make my bed in sheol, behold, Thou art there.
 If I take the wings of the morning,
 And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
 Even there shall Thy hand lead me,
 And Thy right hand shall hold me.
 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me—
 Even the night shall be light about me.
 Yea, the darkness hideth not from Thee;
 But the night shineth as the day:
 The darkness and the light are both alike to Thee.

Search me, O God, and know my heart,
 Try me, and know my thoughts;
 And see if there be any wicked way in me,
 And lead me in the way everlasting.

God Is a Refuge for Us

Selections

Unto Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul;
O my God, in Thee have I trusted.

Show me Thy ways, O Lord; teach me Thy paths;
Lead me in Thy truth and teach me.

Preserve me, O God, for in Thee do I put my trust.
Thou wilt show me the path of life:
In Thy presence is fulness of joy;
In Thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

I will praise Thee, O Lord, with my whole heart;
I will show forth all Thy marvellous works.
I will be glad and rejoice in Thee;
I will sing praise to Thy name, O Most High.

I love Thee, O Lord, my strength;
The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;
My God, my strong rock; in Him will I trust;
My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

My soul waiteth only upon God;
From Him cometh my salvation.
He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my high tower: I shall not be greatly moved.

With God is my salvation and my glory.
The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.
Trust in Him at all times, ye people;
Pour out your heart before Him:

God is a refuge for us.

O taste and see that the Lord is good.

Blessed is the man that trusteth in Him.

God Is Our Refuge and Strength

The Forty-sixth Psalm

God is our refuge and strength,
 A very present help in trouble.
 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be removed,
 And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,
 Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

The Lord of Hosts is with us;
 The God of Jacob is our refuge.

There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God,
 The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.
 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved:
 God shall help her when the morning appeareth.
 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved;
 He uttered His voice, the earth melted.

The Lord of Hosts is with us;
 The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Come, behold the works of the Lord,
 What desolations He hath made in the earth.
 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth;
 He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder;
 He burneth the chariot in the fire.
 Be still, and know that I am God;
 I will be exalted among the nations,
 I will be exalted in the earth.

The Lord of Hosts is with us;
 The God of Jacob is our refuge.

In the Image of God

The Eighth Psalm

O Lord, our Lord,
How excellent is Thy name in all the earth!
Who hast set Thy glory upon the heavens!
Out of the mouth of children hast Thou established strength
Because of Thine adversaries,
That Thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider Thy heavens, the work of Thy fingers,
The moon and the stars, which Thou hast ordained;
What is man, that Thou art mindful of him?
And the son of man, that Thou visitest him?
For Thou hast made him little lower than God,
And hast crowned him with glory and honor.
Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of Thy hands;
Thou hast put all things under his feet:
All sheep and oxen,
Yea, and the beasts of the field;
The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea,
And whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Lord, our Lord,
How excellent is Thy name in all the earth!

The House of the Lord

The Twenty-seventh Psalm

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?

Though an host should encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear.

Though war should rise against me,
Even then will I be confident.

One thing have I desired of the Lord,
That will I seek after;
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord
All the days of my life;
To behold the beauty of the Lord,
And to inquire in His temple.

For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion:
In the secret of His tabernacle shall He hide me;
He shall lift me up upon a rock.
And I will offer in His tabernacle sacrifices of joy;
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

Wait on the Lord, be of good courage;
And He shall strengthen thine heart.
Wait, I say, on the Lord.

Who Shall Ascend into the Hill of the Lord?

The Twenty-fourth Psalm

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof;
The world, and they that dwell therein.
For He hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
Or who shall stand in His holy place?

He that hath clean hands and a pure heart;
Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
Nor sworn deceitfully.
He shall receive the blessing from the Lord,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

A Psalm of Penitence

The Fifty-first Psalm

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Thy loving-kindness;
 According to the multitude of Thy tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.
 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,
 And cleanse me from my sin;
 For I acknowledge my transgressions,
 And my sin is ever before me.
 Behold, Thou desirest truth in the inward parts,
 And in the hidden part Thou shalt make me to know wisdom.
 Purge me, and I shall be clean;
 Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

 Hide Thy face from my sins,
 And blot out all mine iniquities.
 Create in me a clean heart, O God,
 And renew a right spirit within me.
 Cast me not away from Thy presence,
 And take not Thy holy spirit from me.
 Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation,
 And uphold me with Thy free spirit.

 O Lord, open Thou my lips,
 And my mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

Hymns of Gratitude and Praise

St. George's, Windsor

George J. Elvey, 1858

Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come, Raise the song of Har-vest-Home:

All is safe-ly gath-ered in, Ere the win-ter storms be-gin;

God, our Fa-ther, doth pro-vide For our wants to be sup-plied;

Come to God's own tem-ple, come, Raise the song of Har-vest-Home. A-men.

1 Come, ye thankful people, come,
 Raise the song of Harvest-Home:
 All is safely gathered in,
 Ere the winter storms begin;
 God, our Father, doth provide
 For our wants to be supplied:
 Come to God's own temple, come,
 Raise the song of Harvest-Home.

All that spring with bounteous hand
 Scatters o'er the smiling land;
 All that liberal autumn pours
 From her rich o'erflowing stores:

2 All the blessings of the field,
 All the stores the gardens yield;
 All the fruits in full supply,
 Ripened 'neath the summer sky;

3 These to thee, our God, we owe,
 Source whence all our blessings flow;
 And for these our souls shall raise
 Grateful vows and solemn praise.
 Come, then, thankful people, come,
 Raise the song of Harvest-Home;
 Come to God's own temple, come,
 Raise the song of Harvest-Home.

For the Beauty of the Earth

St. Athanasius

Edward J. Hopkins, 1872

For the beau - ty of the earth, For the beau - ty of the skies,

For the love which from our birth O - ver and a - round us lies:

Now, O God, to Thee we raise This our hymn of grate - ful praise. A - men.

1 For the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies,
Now, O God, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

2 For the wonder of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon, and stars of light,
Now, O God, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

3 For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above;
For all gentle thoughts and mild,
Now, O God, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

4 For Thy church, that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore
Her pure sacrifice of love,
Now, O God, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

Let Us With a Gladsome Mind

Innocents

Thibaut IV (of Navarre), 1201-1254

Let us with a glad - some mind Praise the Lord, for He is kind;

For His mer - cies shall en - dure, Ev - er faith - ful, ev - er sure. A - men.

- 1 Let us with a gladsome mind
Praise the Lord, for He is kind;
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.
- 2 He, with all-commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light;
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.
- 3 He the golden-tressèd sun
Caused all day his course to run;
Th' hornèd moon to shine by night,
'Mid her spangled sisters bright.
- 4 All things living He doth feed,
His full hand supplies their need;
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.
- 5 Let us then with gladsome mind
Praise the Lord, for He is kind;
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

John Milton, 1624 (arranged)

My God, I thank Thee, who hast made The earth so bright,

So full of splen - dor and of joy, Beau - ty and light;

So ma - ny glo - rious things are here, No - ble and right. A - men.

1 My God, I thank Thee, who hast made
 The earth so bright,
 So full of splendor and of joy,
 Beauty and light;
 So many glorious things are here,
 Noble and right.

2 I thank Thee, too, that Thou hast made
 Joy to abound,
 So many gentle thoughts and deeds
 Circling us round,
 That in the darkest spot of earth
 Some love is found.

3 I thank Thee, Lord, that Thou hast kept
 The best in store;
 We have enough, yet not too much
 To long for more:
 A yearning for a deeper peace
 Not known before.

Nun Danket

J. Crüger's Praxis Pietatis Melica, 1649

Now thank we all our God With heart and hands and voices,

Who wondrous things hath done, In whom His world rejoices;

Who, from our mother's arms, Hath blessed us on our way

With countless gifts of love, And still is ours to-day. A-men.

1 Now thank we all our God
 With heart and hands and voices,
 Who wondrous things hath done,
 In whom His world rejoices;
 Who, from our mother's arms,
 Hath blessed us on our way
 With countless gifts of love,
 And still is ours to-day.

2 O may this bounteous God
 Through all our life be near us,
 With ever joyful hearts
 And blessed peace to cheer us;
 And keep us in His grace,
 And guide us when perplexed,
 And free us from all ills
 In this world and the next.

- 1 O Lord of heaven and earth and sea,
To Thee all praise and glory be.
How shall we show our love to Thee

Where harvests ripen, Thou art there
Who givest all.
- 3 For peaceful homes and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe Thee thankfulness and praise

Praise the Lord

St. Asaph

William S. Bambridge, 1872

Praise the Lord, ye heavens, a-dore Him; Praise Him, an-gels in the height!

Sun and moon, re-joice be-fore Him; Praise Him, all ye stars and light!

Praise the Lord, for He hath spo-ken; Worlds His might-y voice o-beyed!

Laws which nev-er shall be bro-ken, For their guid-ance hath He made. A-men.

1 Praise the Lord, ye heavens, adore Him;
 Praise Him, angels in the height!
 Sun and moon, rejoice before Him;
 Praise Him, all ye stars and light!
 Praise the Lord, for He hath spoken;
 Worlds His mighty voice obeyed!
 Laws which never shall be broken,
 For their guidance hath He made.

2 Praise the Lord, for He is glorious;
 Never shall His promise fail:
 God hath made His saints victorious;
 Sin and death shall not prevail.

Praise the God of our salvation;
 Hosts on high, His power proclaim;
 Heaven and earth and all creation,
 Laud and magnify His name.

3 Worship, honor, glory, blessing,
 Lord, we offer unto Thee;
 Young and old, Thy praise expressing,
 In glad homage bend the knee.
 As the hosts of heaven praise Thee,
 May our songs with theirs be one.
 We would honor, love, and serve Thee,
 Till on earth Thy will be done.

Praise to God

Arranged from Conrad Kocher, 1838

Praise to God, im - mor - tal praise, For the love that crowns our days;

Boun - teous source of ev - 'ry joy, Let Thy praise our tongues em - ploy:

All to Thee, our God, we owe, Source whence all our bless - ings flow. A-men.

1 Praise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days;
Bounteous source of ev'ry joy,
Let Thy praise our tongues employ:
All to Thee, our God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow.

3 Peace, prosperity, and health,
Private bliss, and public wealth,
Knowledge with its gladdening streams,
Pure religion's holier beams:
Lord, for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

2 All the plenty summer pours;
Autumn's rich o'erflowing stores;
Flocks that whiten all the plain;
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain:
Lord, for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

4 As Thy prospering hand hath blest,
May we give Thee of our best;
And by deeds of kindly love
For Thy mercies grateful prove;
Singing thus through all our days,
Praise to God, immortal praise.

The Summer Days

Hereford

Henry J. Gauntlett

The sum - mer days are come a - gain; Once more the glad earth yields

Her gold - en wealth of ripe - ning grain, And breath of clo - ver fields,

And deep - 'ning shade of sum - mer woods, And glow of sum - mer air,

And wing - ing tho'ts and hap - py moods Of love and joy and pray'r. A-men.

1 The summer days are come again;
 Once more the glad earth yields
 Her golden wealth of ripening grain,
 And breath of clover fields,
 And deep'ning shade of summer woods,
 And glow of summer air,
 And winging thoughts and happy moods
 Of love and joy and prayer.

2 The summer days are come again;
 The birds are on the wing;
 God's praises, in their loving strain,
 Unconsciously they sing.
 We know who giveth all the good
 That doth our cup o'erbrim;
 For summer joy in field and wood
 We lift our song to Him.

We Thank Thee, O Our Father

Greenland

Lausanne Psalter. Altered

We thank Thee, O our Fa - ther, For all Thy lov - ing care ;

We thank Thee that Thou mad - est The world so bright and fair.

We thank Thee for the sun - shine, And for the pleas - ant showers ;

And, O our God, we thank Thee, We thank Thee for the flowers. A - men.

1 We thank Thee, O our Father,
 For all Thy loving care;
 We thank Thee that Thou madest
 The world so bright and fair.
 We thank Thee for the sunshine,
 And for the pleasant showers;
 And, O our God, we thank Thee,
 We thank Thee for the flowers.

2 Out in the sunny meadows,
 And in the woodlands cool,
 Upon the breezy hillside,
 And by each reedy pool,
 And in the quiet pasture,
 And by the broad highway;
 All pure, and fresh, and stainless,
 They spring up every day.

3 And in the dusty city,
 Where busy crowds pass by,
 And where the tall dark houses
 Stand up and hide the sky,
 And where through lanes and alleys
 No pleasant breezes blow,
 E'en there, O God our Father,
 Thou mak'st the flowers grow.

4 And whether in the city
 Or in the fields they dwell;
 Always the same sweet message
 The fair sweet flowers tell.
 For they are all so wonderful,
 They show Thy power abroad;
 And they are all so beautiful,
 They tell Thy love, O God.

We Thank Thee, Lord

Ernan

Lowell Mason, 1850

We thank thee, Lord, for this fair earth, The glitt'ring sky, the sil - ver sea; For all their beau - ty, all their worth, Their light and glo - ry, come from thee. A - men.

- 1 We thank Thee, Lord, for this fair earth,
The glitt'ring sky, the silver sea;
For all their beauty, all their worth,
Their light and glory, come from Thee.
- 2 Thine are the flowers that clothe the ground,
The trees that wave their arms above,
The hills that gird our dwellings 'round,
As Thou dost gird Thine own with love.
- 3 Yet teach us still how far more fair,
More glorious, Father, in Thy sight,
Is one pure deed, one holy prayer,
One heart that owns Thy Spirit's might.
- 4 So while we gaze with thoughtful eye
On all the gifts Thy love has given,
Help us in Thee to live and die,
By Thee to rise from earth to heaven.

We Plough the Fields

- 1 We plough the fields, and scatter
 The good seed on the land,
 But it is fed and watered
 By God's almighty hand;
 He sends the snow in winter,
 The warmth to swell the grain,
 The breezes and the sunshine,
 And soft refreshing rain.

REFRAIN

All good gifts around us
 Are sent from heaven above;
 Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
 For all His love!

- 2 He only is the Maker
 Of all things near and far;
 He paints the wayside flower,
 He lights the evening star;
 The winds and waves obey Him,
 By Him the birds are fed;
 Much more to us, His children,
 He gives our daily bread.

REFRAIN

- 3 We thank Thee then, O Father,
 For all things bright and good,
 The seed-time and the harvest,
 Our life, our health, our food;
 Accept the gifts we offer
 For all Thy love imparts,
 And, what Thou most desirest,
 Our humble, thankful hearts.

All That's Good and Great and True

Cyprus

Arranged from Mendelssohn

All that's good and great and true, All that is and is to be,

Be it old or be it new, Comes, O Fa-ther, comes from Thee. A - men.

1 All that's good and great and true,
All that is and is to be,
Be it old or be it new,
Comes, O Father, comes from Thee.

2 Mercies dawn with every day,
Newer, brighter, than before,
And the sun's declining ray
Layeth others up in store.

3 Not a bird that doth not sing
Sweetest praises to Thy name,
Not an insect on the wing
But Thy wonders doth proclaim.

4 Far and near, o'er land and sea,
Mountain top and wooded dell,
All in singing, sing of Thee,
Songs of love ineffable.

Christ for the World We Sing

Italian Hymn

Felice de Giardini, 1769

Christ for the world we sing; The world to Christ we bring

With lov - ing zeal; The poor and them that mourn, The faint and o - verborne,

Sin - sick and sor - row - worn, Whom Christ doth heal. A - men.

1 Christ for the world we sing;
 The world to Christ we bring
 With loving zeal;
 The poor and them that mourn,
 The faint and overborne,
 Sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
 Whom Christ doth heal.

2 Christ for the world we sing;
 The world to Christ we bring
 With fervent prayer;
 The wayward and the lost,
 By restless passions tossed,
 Redeemed at countless cost
 From dark despair.

3 Christ for the world we sing;
 The world to Christ we bring
 With one accord;
 With us the work to share,
 With us reproach to dare,
 With us the cross to bear,
 For Christ our Lord.

Fling Out the Banner

Waltham

J. Baptiste Calkin, 1872

Fling out the ban-ner! let it float Sky-ward and sea-ward, high and wide; The sun that lights its shin-ing folds,
The cross on which the Sa-viour died. A-men.

- 1 Fling out the banner! let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
The sun that lights its shining folds,
The cross on which the Saviour died.
- 2 Fling out the banner! heathen lands
Shall see from far the glorious sight,
And nations, crowding to be born,
Baptize their spirits in its light.
- 3 Fling out the banner! let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide,
Our glory, only in the cross;
Our only hope, the Crucified!
- 4 Fling out the banner! wide and high,
Seaward and skyward, let it shine;
Nor skill, nor might, nor merit ours;
We conquer only in that sign.

Hail to the Brightness of Zion's Glad Morning

Wesley

Lowell Mason, 1830

Hail to the bright-ness of Zi-on's glad morn-ing! Joy to the lands that in dark-ness have lain! Hushed be the ac-cents of sor-row and mourn-ing; Zi-on in tri-umph be-gins her mild reign. A-men.

1 Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning!
 Joy to the lands that in darkness have lain!
 Hushed be the accents of sorrow and mourning;
 Zion in triumph begins her mild reign.

2 Lo, in the desert rich flowers are springing,
 Streams ever copious are gliding along;
 Loud from the mountain-tops echoes are ringing,
 Wastes rise in verdure, and mingle in song.

3 See, from all lands, from the isles of the ocean,
 Praise to Jehovah ascending on high;
 Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
 Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

Autumn

Spanish Melody, arranged by Louis von Esch, 1810

There's a wide - ness in God's mer - cy, Like the wide - ness of the sea;

There's a kind - ness in His jus - tice, Which is more than lib - er - ty.

For the love of God is broad - er Than the meas - ure of man's mind,

And the heart of the E - ter - nal Is most won - der - ful - ly kind. A - men.

1 There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in His justice,
Which is more than liberty.
For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind,
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.

2 But we make His love too narrow
By false limits of our own;
And we magnify His strictness
With a zeal He will not own.
If our love were but more simple,
We should take Him at His word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

Christians, Awake !

- 1 Christians, awake! salute the happy morn
Whereon the Saviour of mankind was born ;
Rise to adore the mystery of love
Which hosts of angels chanted from above :
With them the joyful tidings first begun
Of God incarnate and the Virgin's Son.

- 2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice : "Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you, and all the nations upon earth :
This day hath God fulfilled His promised word ;
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord."

- 3 He spake : and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire ;
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with alleluias rang :
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and mutual goodwill.

 "Hallelujah! hail the King!
 Jesus Christ is here!
 Jesus Christ is here!"

3 Silent night! peaceful night!
 Child of heav'n! O how bright
 Thou didst smile when thou wast born;
 Blessed was that happy morn,
 Full of heavenly joy,
 Full of heavenly joy.

It Came upon the Midnight Clear

77

Carol

R. Storrs Willis, 1849

It came up - on the mid - night clear, That glo - rious song of old,
From an - gels bend - ing near the earth, To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good - will to men, From heav'n's all-gra - cious King!"
The world in sol - emn still - ness lay To hear the an - gels sing. A - men.

1 It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth,
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, goodwill to men,
From heaven's all-gracious King!"
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world,
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er it's Babel-sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife,
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love-song which they bring:
O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing!

4 For lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophet-bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing.

O Little Town of Bethlehem

The third system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

The hopes and fears of all the years Are met in thee to-night. A - men.

The fourth system of musical notation, which concludes the hymn. It includes a double bar line at the end of the melody. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

O Little Town of Bethlehem

- 1 O little town of Bethlehem,
 How still we see thee lie;
 Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
 The silent stars go by :
 Yet in thy dark streets shineth
 The everlasting Light;
 The hopes and fears of all the years
 Are met in thee to-night.

- 2 For Christ is born of Mary;
 And gathered all above,
 While mortals sleep, the angels keep
 Their watch of wondering love.
 O morning stars, together
 Proclaim the holy birth;
 And praises sing to God the King,
 And peace to men on earth.

- 3 How silently, how silently,
 The wondrous gift is given!
 So God imparts to human hearts
 The blessings of His heaven.
 No ear may hear his coming,
 But in this world of sin,
 Where meek souls will receive him still
 The dear Christ enters in.

- 4 O holy Child of Bethlehem,
 Descend to us, we pray!
 Cast out our sin, and enter in;
 Be born in us to-day.
 We hear the Christmas angels
 The great glad tidings tell;
 O, come to us, abide with us,
 Our Lord Emmanuel!

Let earth receive her King,
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing!

Let men their songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy!

And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.

Once in Royal David's City

Irby

Henry J. Gauntlett, 1858

Once in roy - al Da - vid's cit - y Stood a low - ly cat - tle shed,

Where a moth - er laid her ba - by In a man - ger for his bed:

Ma - ry was that moth - er mild, Je - sus Christ her lit - tle child. A - men.

- 1 Once in royal David's city
 Stood a lowly cattle shed,
 Where a mother laid her baby
 In a manger for his bed:
 Mary was that mother mild,
 Jesus Christ her little child.
- 2 And, thro' all his wondrous childhood,
 He would honor and obey,
 Love, and watch the lowly maiden
 In whose gentle arms he lay:
 Christian children all must be Mild, obedient, good as he.
- 3 For he is our childhood's pattern;
 Day by day like us he grew;
 He was little, weak, and helpless,
 Tears and smiles like us he knew:
 And he feeleth for our sadness,
 And he shareth in our gladness.

The First Noël the Angel Did Say

- 1 The first Noël the angel did say,
 Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
 In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
 On a cold winter's night that was so deep.

REFRAIN

Noël, Noël, Noël, Noël!
 Born is the King of Israel!

- 2 They lookéd up, and saw a star,
 Shining in the East, beyond them far,
 And to the earth it gave great light,
 And so it continued both day and night.

- 3 And by the light of that same star,
 Three wise men came from country far;
 To seek for a king was their intent,
 And to follow the star wherever it went.

- 4 This star drew nigh to the northwest.
 Over Bethlehem it took its rest,
 And there it did both stop and stay,
 Right over the place where Jesus lay.

- 5 Then entered in those wise men three,
 Full reverently upon the knee,
 And offered there, in his presence,
 Their gold, and myrrh, and frankincense.

Addressed their joyful song: |

1 Wise men from the East come

Looking for a king,
And as fitting offering
Royal gifts they bring.
Haste they to the city Asking, "Where is he
We are come to worship
Low on bended knee?"

2 Priests and rulers send them

Gladly on their way,
And rejoicing see they Still the starry ray;
Moves it on before them
Till it shines above
Where the King is resting,
Jesus, King of love.

3 Not in splendid palace

But in Bethlehem's town;
Holding not a scepter,
Wearing not a crown,
Find they then the monarch
Of all pomp despoiled,
See they with his mother,
Just a little child.

4 Gold and myrrh and incense

Lay they at his feet,
With their costliest treasures
Him as King to greet.
As they brought their offering
So, O Lord, may we
Bring to Thee our service,
Give our best to Thee.

Ring Out, Wild Bells

Deventer

Berthold Tours, 1872

In playing, suggest chimes

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky, The fly - ing cloud, the frost - y light ;

The year is dy - ing in the night; Ring out, wild bells, and let him die. A-men.

- 1 Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty light ;
The year is dying in the night ;
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.
- 2 Ring out the old, ring in the new ;
Ring, happy bells, across the snow :
The year is going, let him go ;
Ring out the false, ring in the true.
- 3 Ring out the grief that saps the mind
For those that here we see no more ;
Ring out the feud of rich and poor,
Ring in redress for all mankind.
- 4 Ring out old shapes of foul disease ;
Ring out the narrowing lust of gold ;
Ring out the thousand wars of old,
Ring in the thousand years of peace.
- 5 Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand ;
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be.

All People That on Earth Do Dwell

Old Hundredth

Louis Bourgeois, 1551

All peo - ple that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheer - ful voice: Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell, Come ye be - fore Him and re - joice. A - men.

- 1 All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him and rejoice.
- 2 Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make:
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.
- 3 Oh, enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.
- 4 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

1 All things bright and beautiful,
 All creatures great and small,
 All things wise and wonderful,
 The Lord God made them all.

2 Each little flower that opens,
 Each little bird that sings,
 He made their glowing colors,
 He made their tiny wings.

3 The cold wind in the winter,
 The pleasant summer sun,
 The ripe fruits in the garden—
 He made them every one.

4 The tall trees in the greenwood,
 The meadows where we play,
 The rushes by the water
 We gather every day;—

5 He gave us eyes to see them,
 And lips that we might tell
 How great is God Almighty,
 Who has made all things well.

As the Sun Doth Daily Rise

Monkland

Arranged by John B. Wilkes, 1861

As the sun doth dai - ly rise, Bright'ning all the morn - ing skies,

So to Thee with one ac - cord Lift we up our hearts, O Lord. A - men.

- 1 As the sun doth daily rise,
Brightening all the morning skies,
So to Thee with one accord
Lift we up our hearts, O Lord.
- 2 Day by day provide us food,
For from Thee come all things good:
Strength unto our souls afford
From Thy living Bread, O Lord.
- 3 Be our Guard in sin and strife;
Be the Leader of our life;
Lest like sheep we stray abroad,
Stay our wayward feet, O Lord.
- 4 When the sun withdraws his light,
When we seek our beds at night,
Thou, by sleepless hosts adored,
Hear the prayer of faith, O Lord.

Dear Lord and Father of Mankind

Elton

Frederick C. Maker, 1887

Dear Lord and Fa - ther of mankind, For-give our fool-ish ways; Re-clothe us in our right-ful mind, In pur - er lives Thy serv-ice find, In deep - er rev'ence, praise. A - men.

- 1 Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
 Forgive our foolish ways;
 Reclothe us in our rightful mind,
 In purer lives Thy service find,
 In deeper reverence, praise.
- 2 In simple trust like theirs who heard
 Beside the Syrian sea
 The gracious calling of the Lord,
 Let us, like them, without a word,
 Rise up and follow Thee.
- 3 O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
 O calm of hills above,
 Where Jesus knelt to share with Thee
 The silence of eternity
 Interpreted by love!
- 4 Drop Thy still dews of quietness,
 Till all our strivings cease;
 Take from our souls the strain and stress,
 And let our ordered lives confess
 The beauty of Thy peace.
- 5 Breathe through the heats of our desire
 Thy coolness and Thy balm;
 Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
 Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
 O still, small voice of calm!

God Is the Refuge of His Saints

Ward

Old Scotch Melody: arranged by Lowell Mason, 1830

God is the Ref - uge of His saints When storms of sharp distress in - vade : Ere we can of - fer our com - plaints,

Be - hold Him pres - ent with His aid. A - men.

- 1 God is the Refuge of His saints
When storms of sharp distress invade :
Ere we can offer our complaints,
Behold Him present with His aid.
- 2 Loud may the troubled ocean roar ;
In sacred peace our souls abide ;
While every nation, every shore,
Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.
- 3 There is a stream whose gentle flow
Supplies the city of our God,
Life, love, and joy, still gliding through,
And watering our divine abode.
- 4 That sacred stream, Thine holy word,
Our grief allays, our fear controls ;
Sweet peace Thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls.

Georg Neumark, 1657

If thou but suf-fer God to guide thee, And hope in Him thro' all thy ways,

He'll give thee strength, whate'er betide thee, And bear thee thro' the e - vil days :

Who trusts in God's unchanging love Builds on the rock that naught can move. A - men.

1 If thou but suffer God to guide thee,
And hope in Him through all thy ways,
He'll give thee strength, whate'er betide thee,
And bear thee through the evil days :
Who trusts in God's unchanging love
Builds on the rock that naught can move.

2 Only be still, and wait His leisure
In cheerful hope, with heart content
To take whate'er thy Father's pleasure
And all-deserving love hath sent ;
Nor doubt our inmost wants are known
To Him who chose us for His own.

3 Sing, pray, and keep His ways unswerving,
So do thine own part faithfully,
And trust His word,—though undeserving,
Thou yet shalt find it true for thee ;
God never yet forsook at need
The soul that trusted Him indeed.

Immortal Love, Forever Full

Serenity

Arranged from W. V. Wallace, 1814-1865

Im - mor - tal Love, for - ev - er full, For - ev - er flow - ing free,

For - ev - er shared, for - ev - er whole, A nev - er - ebb - ing sea! A - men.

- 1 Immortal Love, forever full,
Forever flowing free,
Forever shared, forever whole,
A never-ebbing sea!
- 2 We may not climb the heavenly steep
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For him no depths can drown.
- 3 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is he;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.
- 4 The healing of his seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.
- 5 Our Lord and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own thy sway, we hear thy call,
We test our lives by thine.

The King of Love My Shepherd Is

Dominus Regit Me

John B. Dykes, 1868

The King of love my Shep-herd is, Whose good-ness fail-eth nev-er;

I noth-ing lack if I am His And He is mine for-ev-er. A-men.

- 1 The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His
And He is mine forever.
- 2 Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.
- 3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.
- 4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.
- 5 And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever.

'Twas on a tree they slew him—last
When out of the woods he came.

Ignaz Joseph Pleyel, 1815

The morn - ing walks up - on the earth, And man a - wakes to toil and mirth ;

All liv - ing things and lands are gay—Dear God, walk with me thro' the day. A - men.

- 1 The morning walks upon the earth,
And man awakes to toil and mirth;
All living things and lands are gay—
Dear God, walk with me through the day.
- 2 Sweet is the breathing of the world,
As in Thy love it lies enfurled;
And blue and clear the immortal sky;
'Tis Thine, and Thine its purity.
- 3 Now noon sits throned, her golden urn
Pours forth the sunshine! Laugh and burn
Cornland and meadow, lake and sea!
Lord of my life, pour love on me.
- 4 Slow comes the evening o'er the hill,
The labor of the world is still;
Homeward I go, and muse of Thee—
Father of home, abide with me.
- 5 Now droops the dark, but worlds of light,
Hidden by day, fulfil the night!
Infinite Stillness, silent sea
Of truth and power, flow over me.
- 6 O Thou, whose love the night has made
Outwearied earth and man to aid,
Who givest labor, and then rest,
Give me the peace that fills Thy breast.

Thy Kingdom Come, O Lord

Eden

Oswald M. Feilden, 1862

Ful - fil of old Thy word And make the na - tions one,— A - men.

- 1 Thy kingdom come, O Lord,
Wide-circling as the sun ;
Fulfil of old Thy word
And make the nations one,—
- 2 One in the bond of peace,
The service glad and free
Of truth and righteousness,
Of love and equity.
- 3 Speed, speed the longed-for time
Foretold by raptured seers—
The prophecy sublime,
The hope of all the years—
- 4 Till rise at last, to span
Its firm foundations broad,
The commonwealth of man,
The city of our God.

1 Summer suns are glowing
 Over land and sea;
 Happy light is flowing,
 Bountiful and free.
 Everything rejoices
 In the mellow rays;
 All earth's thousand voices
 Swell the psalm of praise.

2 God's free mercy streameth
 Over all the world,
 And His banner gleameth,
 Everywhere unfurled.
 Broad and deep and glorious,
 As the heaven above,
 Shines in might victorious
 His eternal love.

3 Lord, upon our blindness
 Thy pure radiance pour;
 For Thy loving-kindness
 Make us love Thee more.
 And when clouds are drifting,
 Dark across our sky,
 Then, the veil uplifting,
 Father, be Thou nigh.

4 We will never doubt Thee,
 Though Thou veil Thy light;
 Life is dark without Thee,
 Death with Thee is bright.
 Light of light, shine o'er us
 On our pilgrim way;
 Go Thou still before us
 To the endless day.

Father, Hear the Prayer We Offer

St. Oswald

Fa - ther, hear the pray'r we of - fer : Not for ease that pray'r shall be,

But for strength, that we may ev - er Live our lives cou - rage - ous - ly. A - men.

- 1 Father, hear the prayer we offer :
Not for ease that prayer shall be,
But for strength, that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.
- 2 Not forever in green pastures
Do we ask our way to be ;
But the steep and rugged pathways
May we tread rejoicingly .
- 3 Be our Strength in hours of weakness,
In our wanderings be our Guide,
Through endeavor, failure, danger,
Father, be Thou at our side.
- 4 Let our path be bright or dreary,
Storm or sunshine be our share,
May our souls, in hope unwearied,
Make Thy work our ceaseless prayer.

Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right.
Lay hold on life, and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eternally.

Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

115

Hymn to Joy

Arranged from Beethoven, 1824

Joy - ful, joy - ful, we a - dore Thee, God of glo - ry, Lord of love;

Hearts un - fold like flow'rs be - fore Thee, Hail Thee as the sun a - bove.

Melt the clouds of sin and sad - ness; Drive the dark of doubt a - way;

Giv - er of im - mor - tal glad - ness, Fill us with the light of day! A - men.

1 Joyful, joyful, we adore Thee,
 God of glory, Lord of love;
 Hearts unfold like flow'rs before Thee,
 Hail Thee as the sun above.
 Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
 Drive the dark of doubt away;
 Giver of immortal gladness,
 Fill us with the light of day!

2 All Thy works with joy surround Thee,
 Earth and heav'n reflect Thy rays,
 Stars and angels sing around Thee,
 Center of unbroken praise:
 Field and forest, vale and mountain,
 Blossoming meadow, flashing sea,
 Chanting bird and flowing fountain,
 Call us to rejoice in Thee.

3 Thou art giving and forgiving,
 Ever blessing, ever blest,
 Well-spring of the joy of living,
 Ocean depth of happy rest!
 Thou the Father, Christ our Brother,—
 All who live in love are Thine:
 Teach us how to love each other,
 Lift us to the Joy Divine.

4 Mortals join the mighty chorus,
 Which the morning stars began;
 Father love is reigning o'er us,
 Brother love binds man to man.
 Ever singing march we onward,
 Victors in the midst of strife;
 Joyful music lifts us sunward
 In the triumph song of life.

In dark-ness and temp - ta - tion My Light, my Help is near. A - men.

- 1 God is my strong Salvation;
What foe have I to fear?
In darkness and temptation
My Light, my Help is near.

Firm to the fight I stand;
What terror can confound me,
With God at my right hand?
- 3 Place on the Lord reliance;
My soul, with courage wait;
His truth be thine affiance,
When faint and desolate.

His love thy joy increase;
Mercy thy days shall lengthen;
The Lord will give thee peace.

1 Soldiers of Christ, arise,
And put your armor on,
Strong in the strength which God supplies

Through His eternal Son;
Strong in the Lord of hosts,
And in His mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

2 Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued,
And take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God;

That having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome through Christ alone,
And stand entire at last.

3 Leave no unguarded place,
No weakness of the soul,
Take every virtue, every grace,
And fortify the whole.
From strength to strength go on,
Wrestle and fight and pray,
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

Sing we now His praises!

The resurrection of the year—
Sing we now His praises!
The buds are bursting from their coats,
The robin thrills in golden notes;
Sing we now His praises!

3 We thank Him for His friendly care
For all His children everywhere;
Sing we now His praises!
For promise that His love doth give
That we with Him shall ever live.
Sing we now His praises!

German Melody. Arranged by Lowell Mason, 1839

{ The day of res - ur - rec - tion! Earth tell it out a - broad; }
 { The Fes - ti - val of glad - ness, The Fes - ti - val of God! }

From death to life e - ter - nal, From this world to the sky,

Our Christ hath brought us o - ver With hymns of vic - to - ry. A - men.

1 The day of resurrection!
 Earth tell it out abroad;
 The Festival of gladness,
 The Festival of God!
 From death to life eternal,
 From this world to the sky,
 Our Christ hath brought us over,
 With hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
 That we may see aright
 The Lord in rays eternal
 Of resurrection-light,
 And, listening to his accents,
 May hear, so calm and plain,
 His own "All hail!" and hearing,
 May raise the victor-strain!

3 Now let the heavens be joyful,
 Let earth her song begin,
 Let the round world keep triumph,
 And all that is therein;
 And in a mighty chorus
 Their notes let all things blend,
 For Christ the Lord hath risen,
 Our joy that hath no end.

Welcome, Day of Gladness

Arranged from Gounod

Ban - ished be all sad - ness, And for-got - ten be grief and fear!

For - ward! ev - 'ry voice shall ring ; On - ward! ev - 'ry soul shall loud - ly sing ;

Upward! ev'ry heart shall rise to meet the King, And heav'n be more near! A-men.

Welcome, Day of Gladness

- 1 Welcome, day of gladness,
 Bringing in the dawning year!
 Banished be all sadness,
 And forgotten be grief and fear!
 Forward! every voice shall ring;
 Onward! every soul shall loudly sing;
 Upward! every heart shall rise to meet the King,
 And heaven be more near!

- 2 Farewell, year of blessing,
 Which in peace and mercy ends.
 Here, Lord, Thee confessing,
 At Thy feet every Christian bends.
 Send us greater hope, we pray,
 Greater love unto the greater day,
 Greater light to lead us on the greater way
 That mankind ascends.

- 3 All hail, year before us!
 Tidings glad are spread abroad.
 Sing all, then, in chorus,
 On the road that the blest have trod.
 Sing Christ and his love for men;
 Sing the love of men for Christ; and then
 Sing, ye quick, and sing aloud, ye dead, again,
 The great love of God.

F. Field

1 At Thy feet, our God and Father,
 Who hast blessed us all our days,
 We with grateful hearts would gather
 To begin the year with praise:
 Praise for light so brightly shining
 On our steps from heaven above;
 Praise for mercies daily twining
 Round us golden cords of love.

2 Jesus, for thy love most tender,
 On the cross for sinners shown,
 We would praise thee, and surrender
 All our hearts to be thine own:

With so blest a Friend provided,
 We upon our way would go,
 Sure of being safely guided,
 Guarded well from every foe.

3 Every day will be the brighter
 When, O God, Thy face we see;
 Every burden will be lighter
 When we know it comes from Thee.
 Spread Thy love's broad banner o'er us,
 Give us strength to serve and wait,
 Till the glory breaks before us
 Through the city's open gate.

God of the ear - nest heart, The trust as - sured and still,

Thou who our strength for-ev - er art, We come to do Thy will! A-men.

- 1 God of the earnest heart,
The trust assured and still,
Thou who our strength forever art,

By saints serenely trod,
Whereon their hallowing influence flowed,
Would we go forth, O God,—

No trembling on the tongue,
Lord, in Thy rest may we be calm,
Through Thy completeness strong.

Oft In Danger, Oft In Woe

University College

Henry J. Gauntlett, 1848

- 1 Oft in danger, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians, onward go;
Fight the fight, maintain the strife,
Strengthened with the bread of life.
- 2 Let your drooping hearts be glad;
March in heavenly armor clad;
Fight, nor think the battle long,
Soon shall victory tune your song.
- 3 Let not sorrow dim your eye,
Soon shall every tear be dry;
Let not fears your course impede,
Great your strength, if great your need.
- 4 Onward then to battle move,
More than conquerors ye shall prove;
Though opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldiers, onward go.

See thou ren - der All thy fee - ble pow'rs can pay. A - men.

 He unfoldeth
 Every fault that lurks within;
 Every stain of shame glossed over
 Can discover,

 Each endeavor
 When thine aim is good and true;
 But that He may ever thwart thee,

Lord of all lands and our own land,

Jesus Calls Us

William H. Jude, 1874

Je - sus calls us o'er the tu - mult Of our life's wild rest - less sea ;

Day by day his sweet voice soundeth, Say - ing, "Christian, fol - low me !" A - men.

- 1 Jesus calls us o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild restless sea ;
Day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, "Christian, follow me!"
- 2 As of old, apostles heard it
By the Galilean lake,
Turned from home and toil and kindred,
Leaving all for his dear sake.
- 3 Jesus calls us from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store,
From each idol that would keep us,
Saying, "Christian, love me more!"
- 4 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still he calls in cares and pleasures,
"Christian, love me more than these!"
- 5 Jesus calls us: by thy mercies,
Saviour, may we hear thy call,
Give our hearts to thy obedience,
Serve and love thee best of all.

In closer, dearer company,

In trust that triumphs over wrong;

Far down the future's broadening way;
In peace that only thou canst give,
With thee, O Master, let me live.

2 Lead on, O King Eternal,
 Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
 And Holiness shall whisper
 The sweet Amen of peace ;

 Nor roll of stirring drums,
 But deeds of love and mercy,
 The heavenly kingdom comes.

3 Lead on, O King Eternal :

 Where'er Thy face appears ;
 Thy cross is lifted o'er us ;

 The crown awaits the conquest ;
 Lead on, O God of might.

 Who will share the burden,
 Lighten toil and woe?
 Who will ask no guerdon
 But with him to go?
 By thy call of mercy,
 By thy grace divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are thine.

2 Fierce may be the conflict,
 Strong may be the foe,
 But the King's own army
 None can overthrow:
 Round his standard ranging,
 Victory is secure;
 For his truth unchanging
 Makes the triumph sure.
 Joyfully enlisting
 By thy grace divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are thine.

O God, Who Workest Hitherto

Mirfield

Arthur Cottman, 1874

O God, who work - est hith - er - to, Work - ing in all we see,

Fain would we be, and bear, and do, As best it pleas - eth Thee. A - men.

- 1 O God, who workëst hitherto,
Working in all we see,
Fain would we be, and bear, and do,
As best it pleaseth Thee.
- 2 Where'er Thou sendest we will go,
Nor any question ask,
And what Thou biddest we will do,
Whatever be the task.
- 3 Our skill of hand, and strength of limb,
Are not our own, but Thine;
We link them to the work of him
Who made all life divine.

Thomas W. Freckleton, 1884

Rise Up, O Men of God

St. Thomas

Aaron Williams, 1763

Rise up, O men of God! Have done with less - er things,

Give heart and soul and mind and strength To serve the King of Kings. A - men.

- 1 Rise up, O men of God!
Have done with lesser things,
Give heart and soul and mind and strength
To serve the King of Kings.
- 2 Rise up, O men of God!
His kingdom tarries long;
Bring in the day of brotherhood
And end the night of wrong.
- 3 Rise up, O men of God!
The church for you doth wait,
Her strength unequal to her task;
Rise up, and make her great!
- 4 Lift high the cross of Christ!
Tread where his feet have trod,
As brothers of the Son of Man,
Rise up, O men of God!

God of Our Fathers

- 1 God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs to Thee, O God, arise.

In this free land by Thee our lot is cast ;
Be Thou our Ruler, Guardian, Guide, and Stay ;
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

Be Thy strong arm our ever sure defence ;
Thy true religion in our hearts increase,
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Lead us from night to never-ending day ;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine.

My Country, 'tis of Thee

America

Adapted by Henry Carey, 1740

My coun - try, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of lib - er - ty,
Of thee I sing; Land where my fa - thers died, Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From ev - 'ry moun - tain side Let free - dom ring! A - men.

1 My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

Union

Hugh Hartshorne, 1915

O Lord our God, Thy might - y hand Hath made our coun - try free;
From all her broad and hap - py land May wor - ship rise to Thee.
Ful - fil the prom - ise of her youth, Her lib - er - ty de - fend;
By law and or - der, love and truth, A - mer - i - ca be - friend! A - men.

1 O Lord our God, Thy mighty hand
Hath made our country free;
From all her broad and happy land
May worship rise to Thee.
Fulfil the promise of her youth,
Her liberty defend;
By law and order, love and truth,
America befriend!

2 The strength of every state increase
In Union's golden chain;
Her thousand cities fill with peace,
Her million fields with grain.
The virtues of her mingled blood
In one new people blend;
By unity and brotherhood,
America befriend!

3 O suffer not her feet to stray;
But guide her untaught might,
That she may walk in peaceful day,
And lead the world in light.
Bring down the proud, lift up the poor,
Unequal ways amend;
By justice, nation-wide and sure,
America befriend!

4 Through all the waiting land proclaim
Thy gospel of goodwill;
And may the joy of Jesus' name
In every bosom thrill.
O'er hill and vale, from sea to sea,
Thy holy reign extend;
By faith and hope and charity,
America befriend!

Crucifer

Henry Smart, 1867

Not a-lone for might-y em-pire, Stretch-ing far o'er land and sea,

Not a-lone for boun-teous har-vests, Lift we up our hearts to Thee.

Stand-ing in the liv-ing pres-ent, Mem-o-ry and hope be-tween,

Lord, we would with deep thanksgiving Praise Thee more for things unseen. A-men.

1 Not alone for mighty empire,
Stretching far o'er land and sea,
Not alone for bounteous harvests,
Lift we up our hearts to Thee.
Standing in the living present,
Memory and hope between,
Lord, we would with deep thanksgiving
Praise Thee more for things unseen.

3 For the armies of the faithful
Lives that passed and left no name;
For the glory that illumines
Patriot souls of deathless fame;
For the people's prophet-leaders,
Loyal to Thy living word,—
For all heroes of the spirit,
Give we thanks to Thee, O Lord.

2 Not for battleship and fortress,
Not for conquests of the sword,
But for conquests of the spirit
Give we thanks to Thee, O Lord;
For the heritage of freedom,
For the home, the church, the school,
For the open door to manhood
In a land the people rule.

4 God of justice, save the people
From the war of race and creed,
From the strife of class and faction,—
Make our nation free indeed;
Keep her faith in simple manhood
Strong as when her life began,
Till it find its full fruition
In the Brotherhood of Man!

1 O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

2 O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America!
God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law!

3 O beautiful for heroes proved
In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved,
And mercy more than life;
America! America!
May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness,
And every gain divine.

4 O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

The Fathers Built This City

A. J. Caldicott

The fa - thers built this cit - y In a - ges long a - go,

And bus - y in the bus - y streets, They hur - ried to and fro;

The chil - dren played a - round them, And sang the songs of yore,

Till one by one they fell a-sleep, To work and play no more. A - men.

- 1 The fathers built this city
 In ages long ago,
 And busy in the busy streets,
 They hurried to and fro;
 The children played around them,
 And sang the songs of yore,
 Till one by one they fell asleep,
 To work and play no more.
- 2 Yet still the city standeth,
 A hive of toiling men,
 And mother's love makes happy home
 For children now as then;
 O God of ages, help us,
 Such citizens to be
 That children's children here may sing
 The songs of liberty.

- 3 Let all the people praise Thee,
 Give all Thy saving health,
 Or vain the laborer's strong right arm
 And vain the merchant's wealth;
 Send forth Thy light to banish
 The shadows of the shame,
 Till all the civic virtues shine
 Around our city's name.
- 4 A commonweal of brothers
 United, great and small,
 Upon our banner blazoned be
 The Charter, "Each for all"!
 Nor let us cease from battle,
 Nor weary sheathe the sword,
 Until this city is become
 The city of the Lord.
